"MEMORIES OF THE CLASS OF '11

Remember how happy and thrilled we were when we moved from the old South School into this grand, new building? Remember the way we strutted down the aisle to that big stage and how proud we were to be the first class to graduate from Central School?

Warmest and brightest of our reminiscings are these thoughts of the days when we passed through these portals.

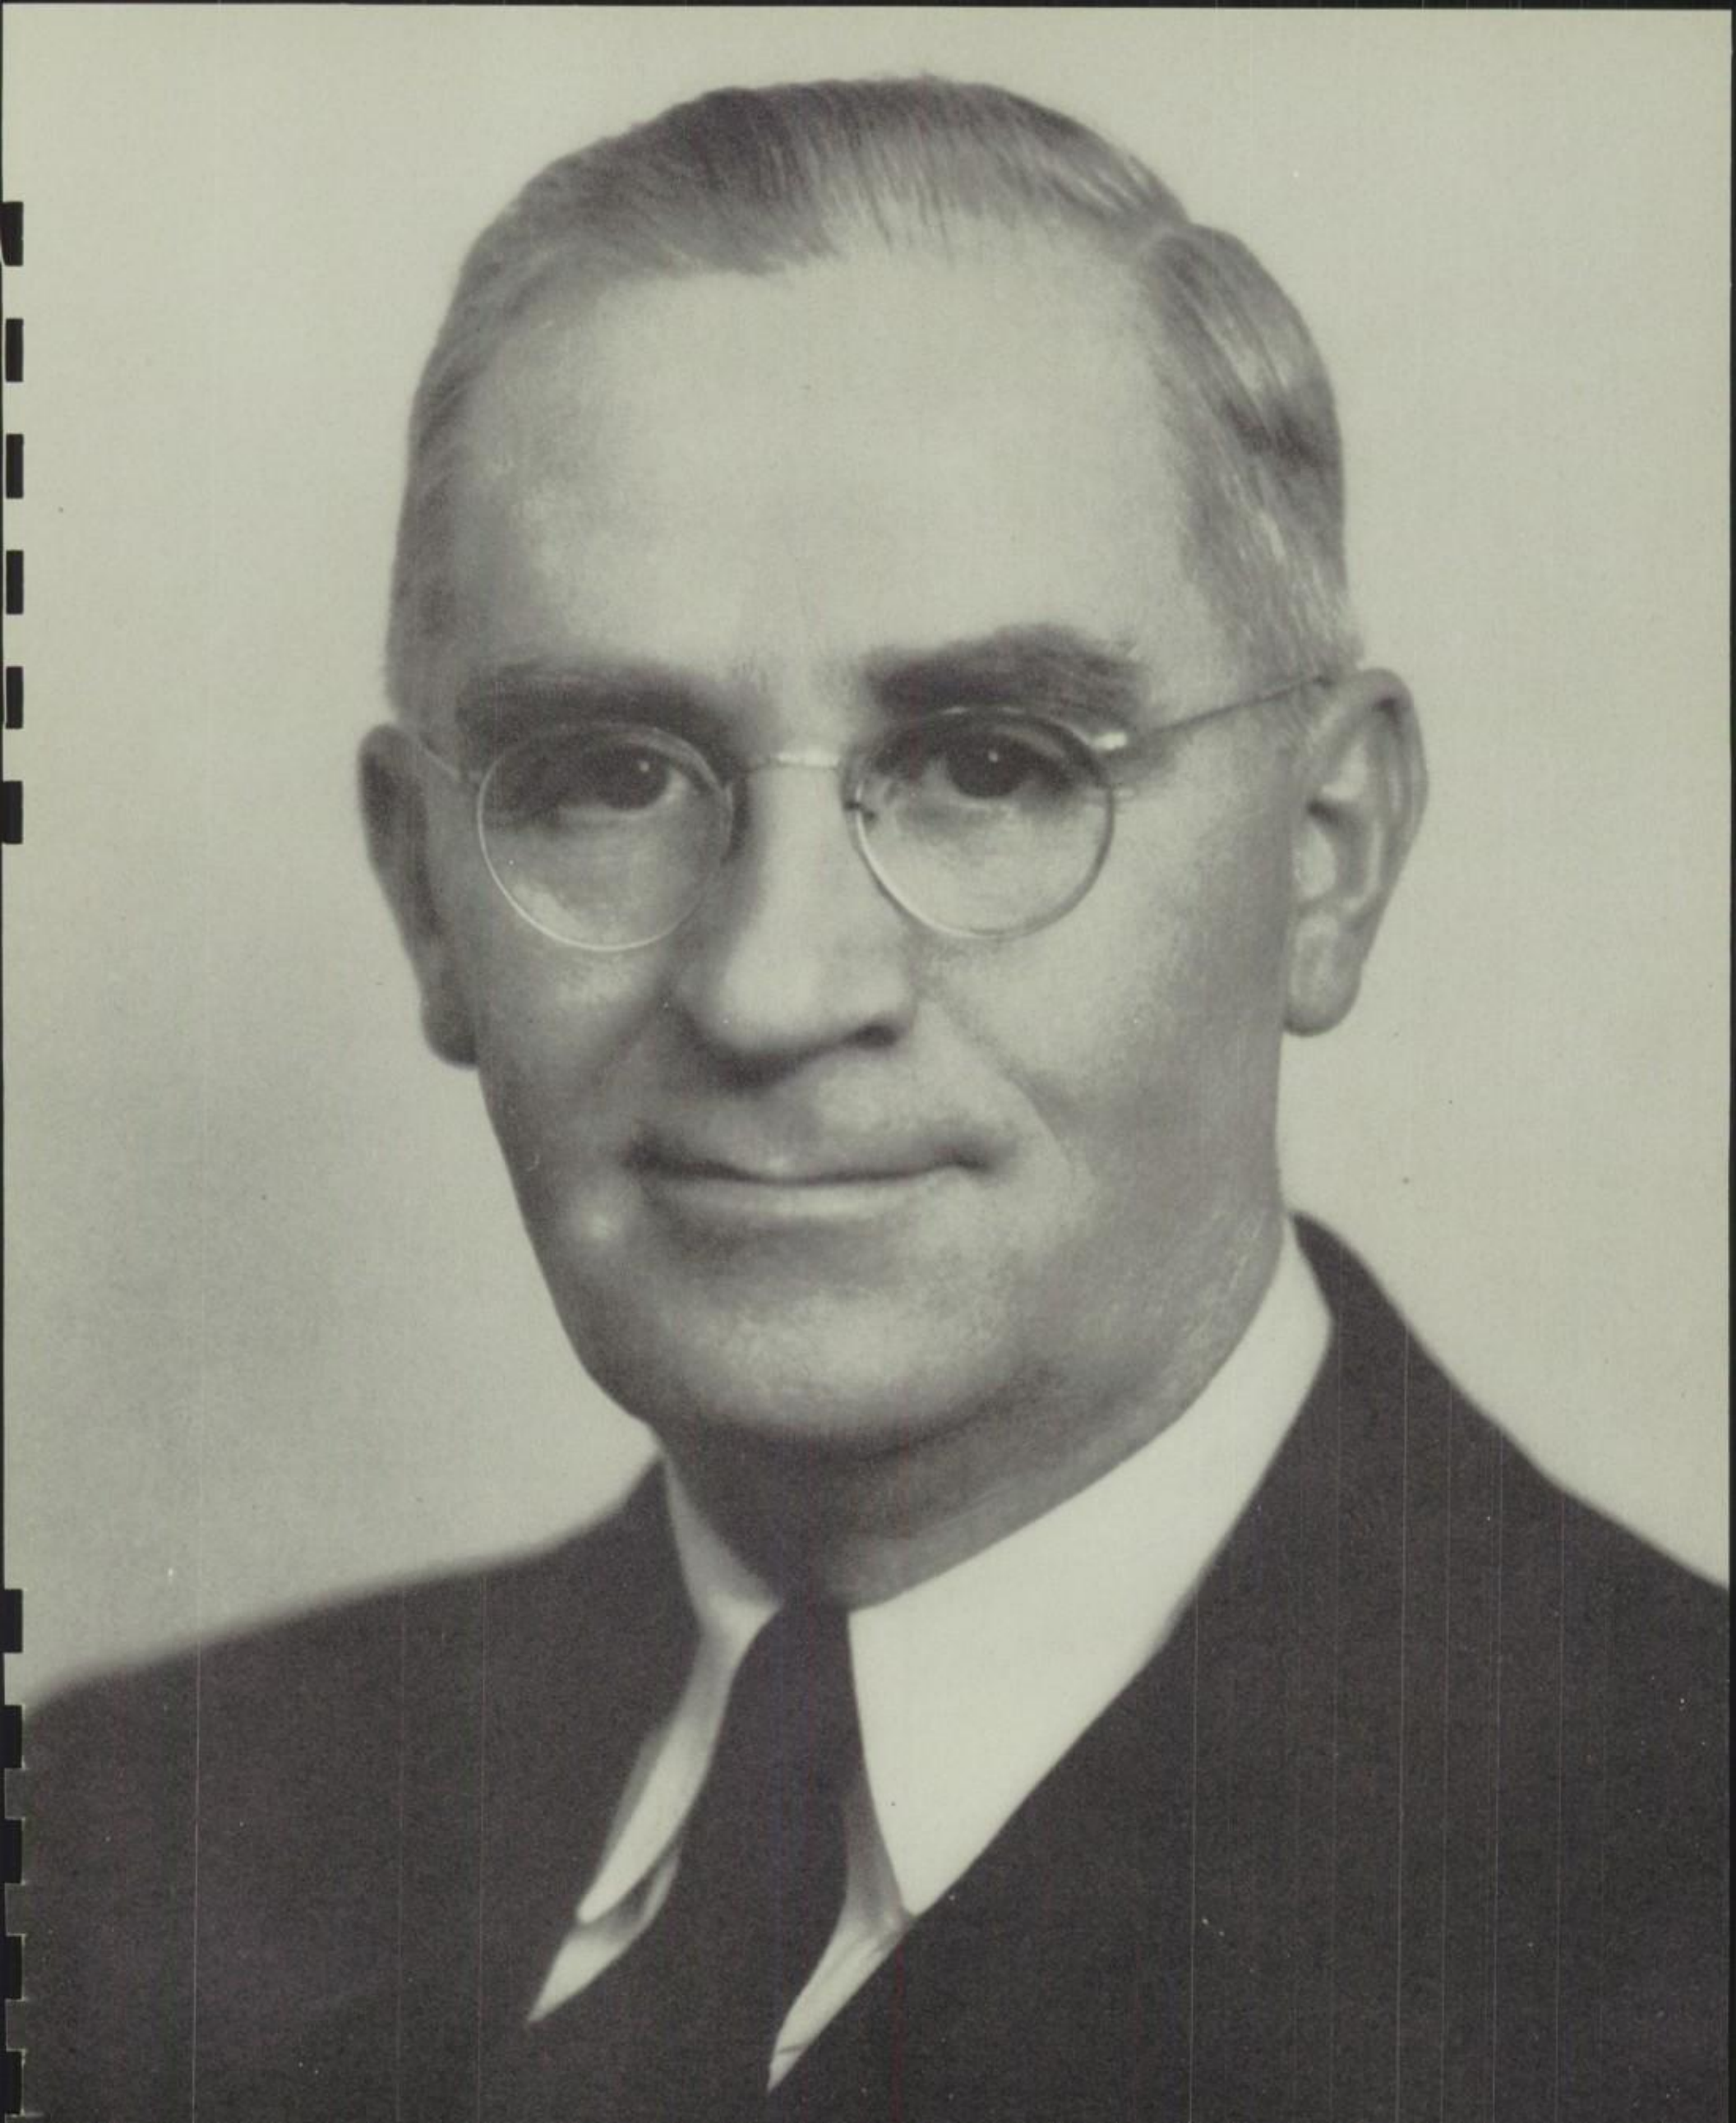

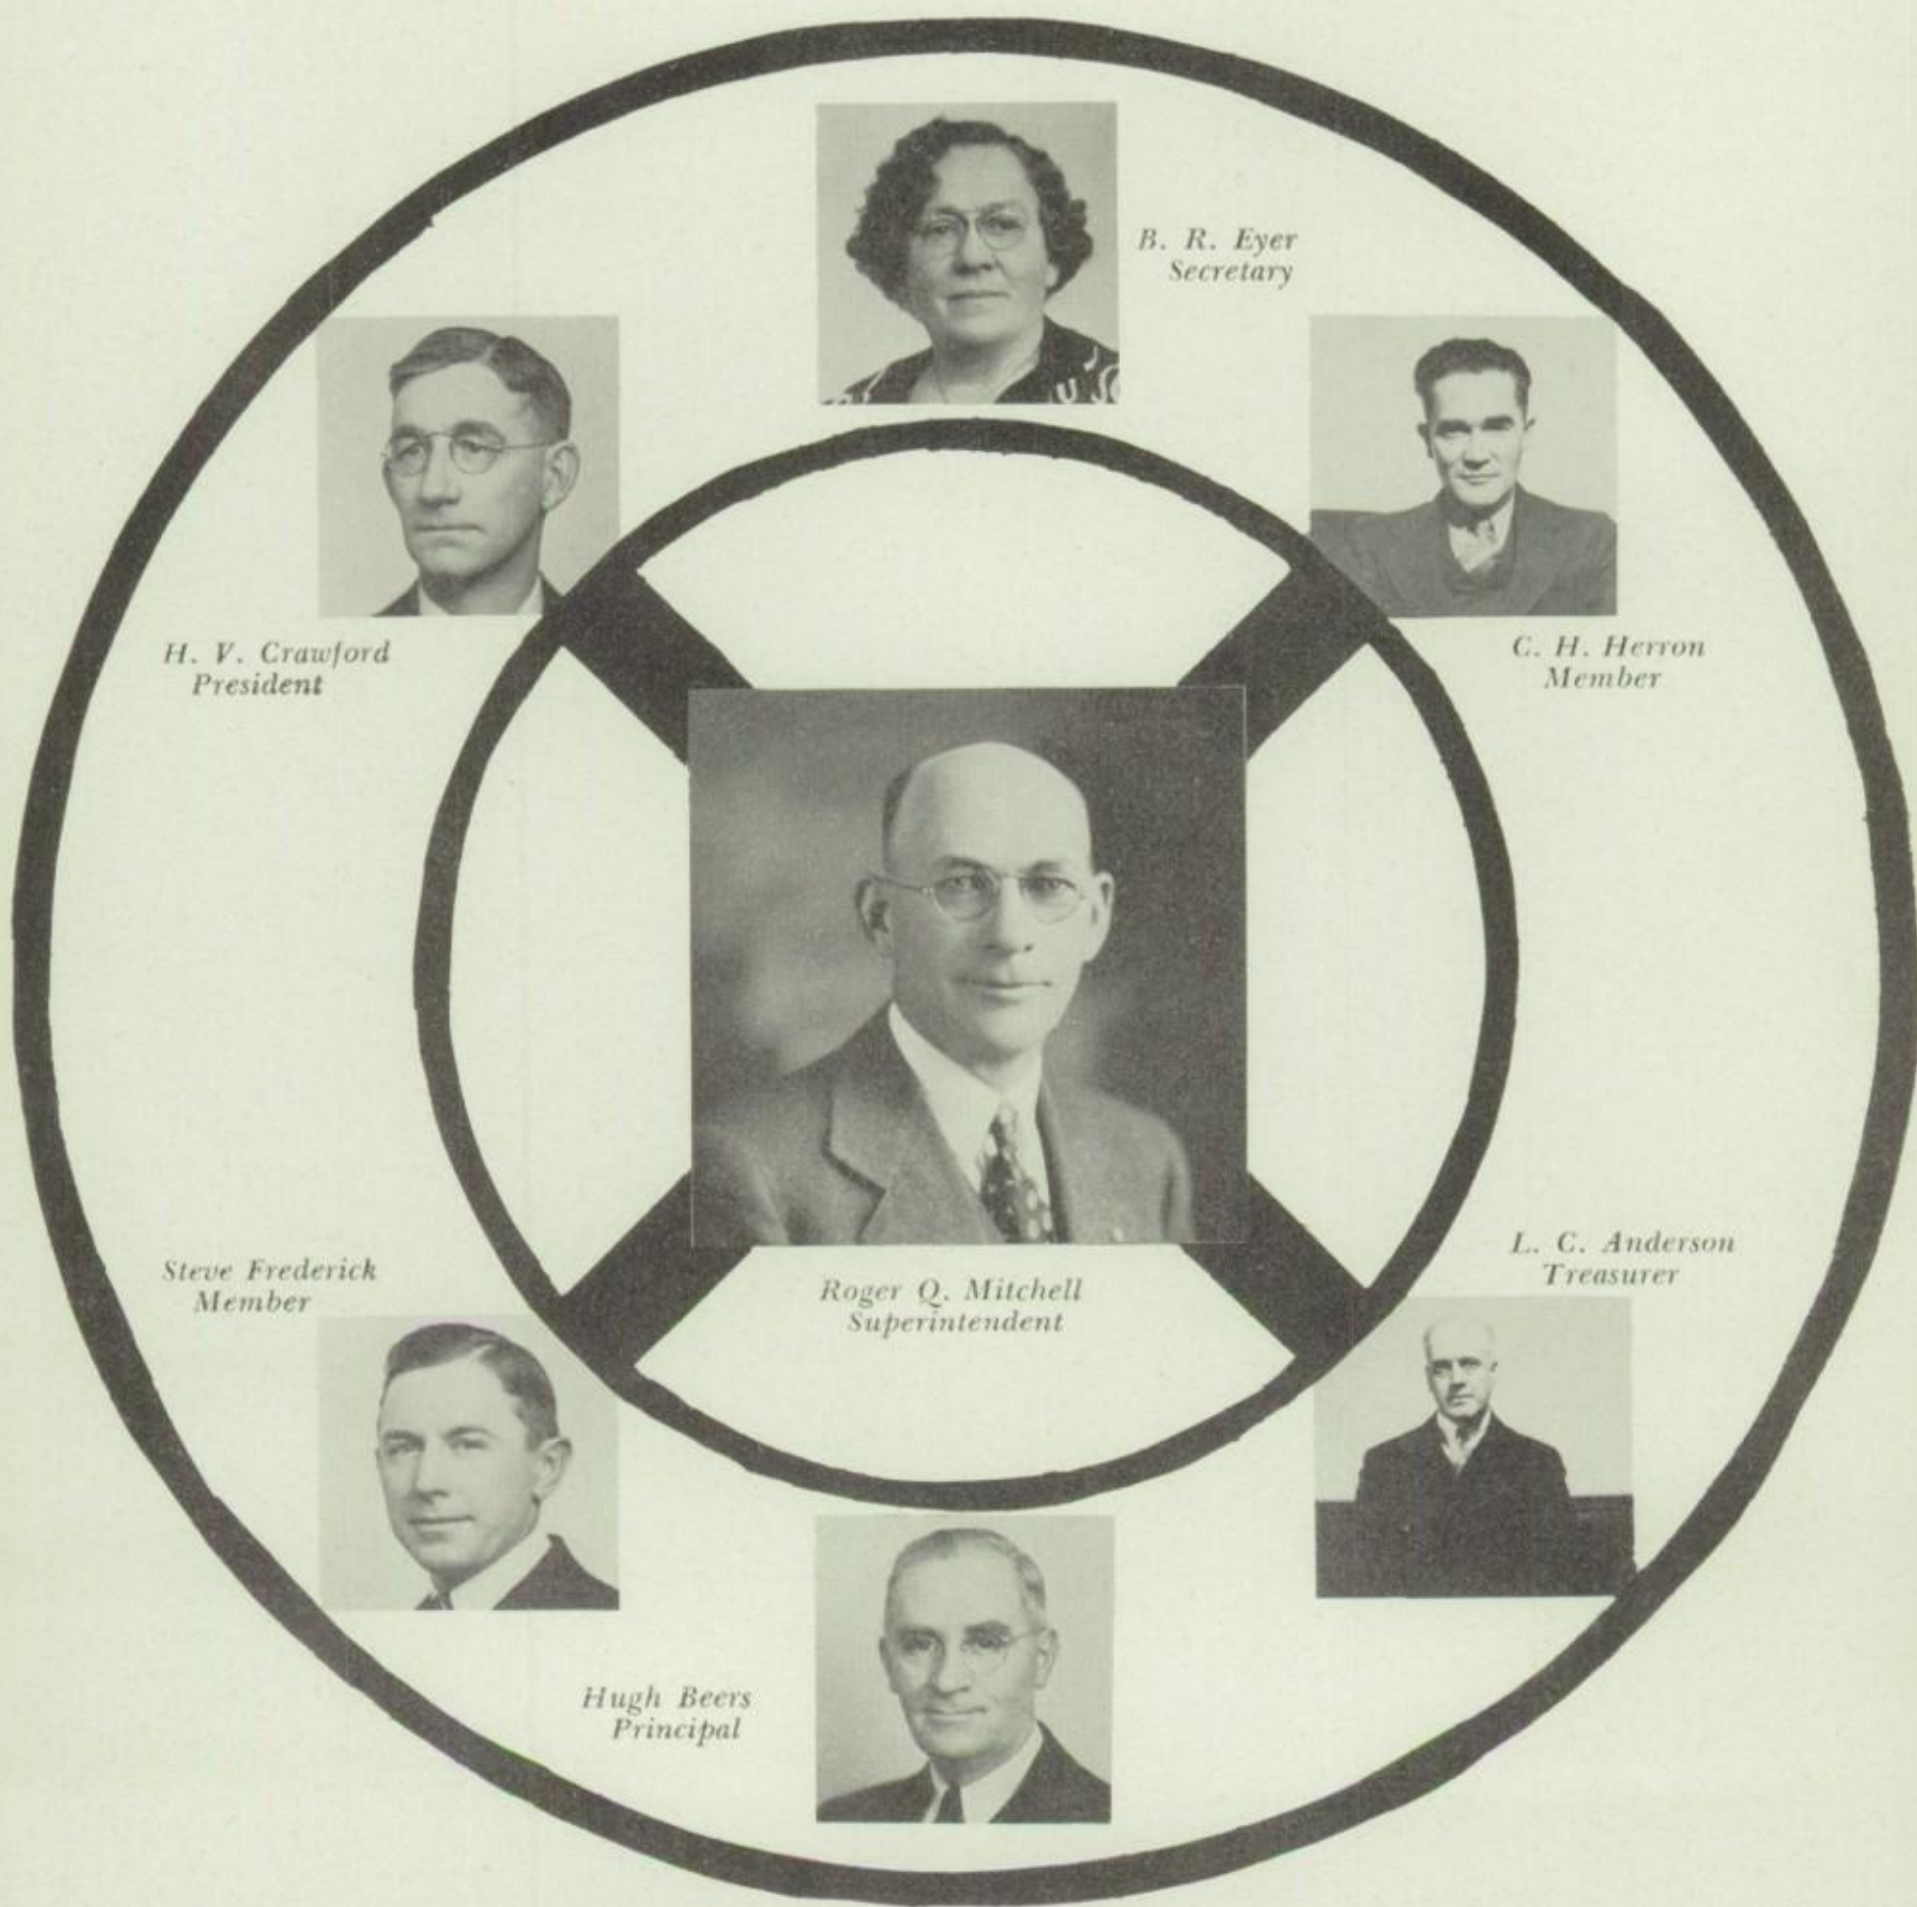

"OUR GOLDEN HIGH"

In this, our school, sixty-two friendly comrades worried, laughed, and worked together like true classmates. For four years we have ascended these steps, gained friends, increased our knowledge and accumulated wonderful memories of four miraculous years. Now the thought that we shall ascend these steps only in dreams brings regretful tears to our eyes.

DEDICATION

Mr. Beers, the companion of every student, is always willing to direct and aid his proteges. When we were freshmen, he reassured us with a friendly smile and now that we are seniors reaching our cherished goal, he waves a fond farewell. To him we wish to dedicate our "Demon," the symbol of four years under his command.

THE ADMINISTRATION

The expert management and sympathetic understanding of the school board, superintendent and principal have encouraged and inspired the students to better their work in the attainment of greater and higher standards.

They have advanced the Golden School systems to first class standing; installed compulsory physical education for ninth and tenth grades; added new and interesting subjects and activities to our curriculum.

We, the Senior Class of '41, wish to thank those who have improved and advanced our school so that we might develop our minds and bodies. We are more than grateful for their friendship and deep interest during the past four years.

F A C U L T Y

Mr. Ted Anderson, B.A.

Mr. Anderson is a jolly, red-headed Irishman, who is always ready to laugh. Many a dreary day has been brightened by his good humor and hearty laugh.

Mr. Ralph Bishop, M.A., L.L.B.

Mr. Bishop's desire to make every student a worthy American citizen brings out his patriotism and the sincerity behind each piece of advice so kindly given.

Miss Mabel Bolitho, B.S.

If a prize were given to the person who ever found Miss Bolitho without a friendly, warm smile, that reward would go unclaimed. She brightens up the classrooms and halls with this grand possession.

Mr. Fritz Brennecke, B.A., M.A.

Spirits haunt Golden High and are very often known to cause unexpected quizzes. Mr. Brennecke's spirit is famous as the "Guy" that brings on moods, and tests.

Miss Ann A. Chandler, B.A.

Miss Chandler is like a fellow student, for she enjoys herself most when among them, joining in their activities. Although this is her first year in Golden, she has numerous friends.

F A C U L T Y

Miss Fairbanks, A.B.

If you haven't heard an amusing story, a travelog, a college experience narrated by Miss Fairbanks, you've missed a great deal.

Mr. Earl Grant, B.S., M.A.

The most handsome person in school is Mr. Grant. "Gus" is well known for his friendly smile and grand personality, which have made him numerous friends in school.

Miss Edna S. Gray, A.B.

A soft voice and an amused laugh are the possessions of Miss Gray. If you want to know anything about any place, anywhere just ask this Globe-trotter.

Mr. Earle A. Johnson

Mr. Johnson's love of music works him over time. He is always good-humored and willing to take on any extra load to help the students.

Mrs. Rowena V. King, B.A.

Her motherly advice and success stories with morals have guided many a student over the rough paths of life to their success. She has shown interest and understanding in each individual.

F A C U L T Y

Mrs. Helen B. Luddington, B.S.

Mrs. Luddington has instructed innumerable students to make better housekeepers. She lends her charm and friendly interest for the furtherance of all her students and her school.

Mr. J. W. Pinks, A.B., M.A.

When Mr. Pinks is mentioned, an enthusiastic student usually says, "He is more fun," and he is, for he always does the unexpected thing: a hand-spring in the midst of a tennis game, or a laugh when you think he is angry with you.

Miss Maude Priest, B.A., M. A.

Miss Priest has a very enviable possession—the ability to get things done quickly and thoroughly. All her ventures are a success because of this admirable trait.

Mr. Elgin Rex, A.B., M.A.

It is impossible to find an enemy of Mr. Rex. His good nature is known and admired by all those who have the privilege to come in contact with him.

P R O P H E C Y

"Who is this? So withered and so wild in her attire, that looks not like an inhabitant of the earth. Live you? Speak if you can! What are you, weird sister?"

"If you can look into the seeds of time and say which grain will grow and which will not. Speak then to me, who neither beg nor fear your favors, nor your hate."

"Peace—the charm is wound."

"What see you in the future for my classmates and my friends?"

"Ah! I see a great airport with planes flying overhead. One has just taxied from the field, a hundred and eighty-five pound woman is alighting."

"Why, it's Dorothy Gorman and she's pilot of that plane! I guess she has gained some weight at last. Haven't I seen that person standing in the hangars somewhere before?"

"He is an old classmate of yours, Stanley Bloom. He has become a great person since last you saw him. He designs all the airplanes for this field."

"Who are those passengers walking toward the taxi?"

"They are Rosaline Bettinger and Ruby Wilcox. Rosaline is hostess and Ruby is cigarette girl in the Silver Glade of the Cosmopolitan Hotel and that taxi driver is Merle Britz. Merle is invaluable in the taxi business to those who have two minutes to catch a train or 'thirty seconds to go'."

"Look they are speeding along that highway and pulling up to a roadside stand!"

"Yes, they are visiting their classmate Virginia Mayer, who is proprietor of the Green Mountain Gurtie Grill. Several of your other old classmates are working for her. Lawrence Deering, who won the Bouncer Academy award for the Rocky Mountain Region is her chief bouncer. Lorraine Struck is her private secretary and her music is supplied by that master musician, Bennie LeFavre and his Rocky Mountain Canaries."

"Are all my classmates here? Surely some must have moved away."

"Double, double toil and trouble. Fire burn and cauldron bubble."

"The scene is changing, I see tall skyscrapers—New York and the Metropolitan Opera House. Four blocks away you can see the huge electric sign with its lights blinking out the names of the world's foremost opera stars, Helen Ruth Gannzora and Jerry Dilling Diago in the opera 'Carmen'."

"Isn't that Joan Thomas buying her tickets?"

"Joan attends all the operas. She has become the world's foremost critic and she is buying her ticket from Merna Dillon, who owes her success to her experience at the Golden Gem. There goes Al Corfman, always interested in sports, he is getting a new angle on bullfighting. The program in Al's hand comes from the press of that famous printer, Barry Smith. You will find some of your old classmates back stage. Chief electrician of the opera company is Robert Bunzel and through their experience with the Senior play of 1941, Bernice Webster and Helen Wheeler are the wardrobe designers. Now let us find some more of your friends."

"Double, double toil and trouble. Fire burn and cauldron bubble."

"Why, it's a circus, who of my classmates could possibly be there?"

"Under the big top swinging from bar to bar, lightly as a feather wafted by a gentle breeze, Wayne Hyllegard, their chief trapeze artist, amazes all with his daring stunts. Everyone is crying about the loss of their fat lady, Florence Pearce, who has become slim through the work of a great scientist, Janice Sheriff. Their bareback rider is none other than Dewial Ray, who can turn a triple somersault in mid-air and jump through a hoop of fire. Chief Photographer for Life magazine, Elon Thompson, is there photographing this amazing act."

"Look! They are taking up the tents to leave. Who is that carrying that huge trunk?"

"That is Dick Unland who works for a mammoth moving-van company owned by Elmer Simpson. Now let us take a look at your Hollywood friends."

"Many of your classmates have become important stars. Tonight is the premier of Kathryn Howe's new picture and people are standing for miles around to get a glimpse of this three-time academy award winner. As this is an Indian epic, they hired Audrey Bacon to help in its production. She has been working very hard as cosmetician on an Indian Reservation. There is a new member of the Dr. Kildare shows. Eleanor Frederick has become his cook. As you go on the sound stage you can hear magnetic voices ring out, they owe their appeal to Margaret Hopkins, who teaches voice culture on the lots. Hollywood's greatest singer is Jean Warren, top box office star of 1951. Bill Harris has run Walt Disney and his Mickey Mouse out of business, by his cartoons of Agnes the Anglemorm. Mary Jane Nelson typifies the perfect secretary in the execution of her duties for Darryl F. Zanuck."

"Double, double toil and trouble. Fire burn and cauldron bubble."

"That must be Golden."

"Some of your classmates have never left. Ethel Jane Harvey, pining away for the love of Mr. Brennecke, stands by the school house to see him pass each morning. I can see Mr. Bishop's Civics Class, Roberta Dorr is still holding down her fourth seat in the second row, hoping to pass this year. Foss' is still the high school hangout. The first booth is leased by Margaret Duppmann, who is still trying to land that ex-grad."

"What is that crowd in front of the barber shop?"

"Persistence and the ability to argue have made this man the success he is today. Roy Gurule, champion soapbox debater of the United States, is trying to convince the crowd that caps and gowns should be abolished from the public schools. For ten years now Roy has taken his post at daylight and argued until sunset. In the meantime he has learned to spit tobacco 40 paces into a stiff gale. Johnny Anderson has become manager of the Adolph Coors Co. with Ruth Grady as his office girl. Gerald Gould, king of the Tau Bates in Colorado School of Mines, was appointed president of C. W. C. due to his way with the fairer sex. Marjoriella Kubesh, has started a house to house campaign in Arvada to catch a man. Always a ladies' man, Gordon Miner, is now recreation supervisor of an old ladies' home. They have been forced to add three new buildings to this home, because of his popularity. Dorothy O'Donnell has just been elected beauty queen of Mines."

"Double, double toil and trouble. Fire burn and cauldron bubble."

"The scene is a crowded court room, there is a breathless hush for America's golden voiced lawyer, Mary Kay Thomas, who has never lost a case, is pleading for the fate of Bob Taylor. Bob has become lightweight wrestling champion of the United States through his practice with Mary Anne. He is now suing for a divorce, in the interests of domestic tranquility. Taking notes for this notorious case is Gaynell Wolf, now United States Supreme Court reporter. One of the jurors, your old classmate, Lillian Deaver, was forced to cut short her honeymoon at Niagara Falls to attend the trial."

"Who is that behind the easel?"

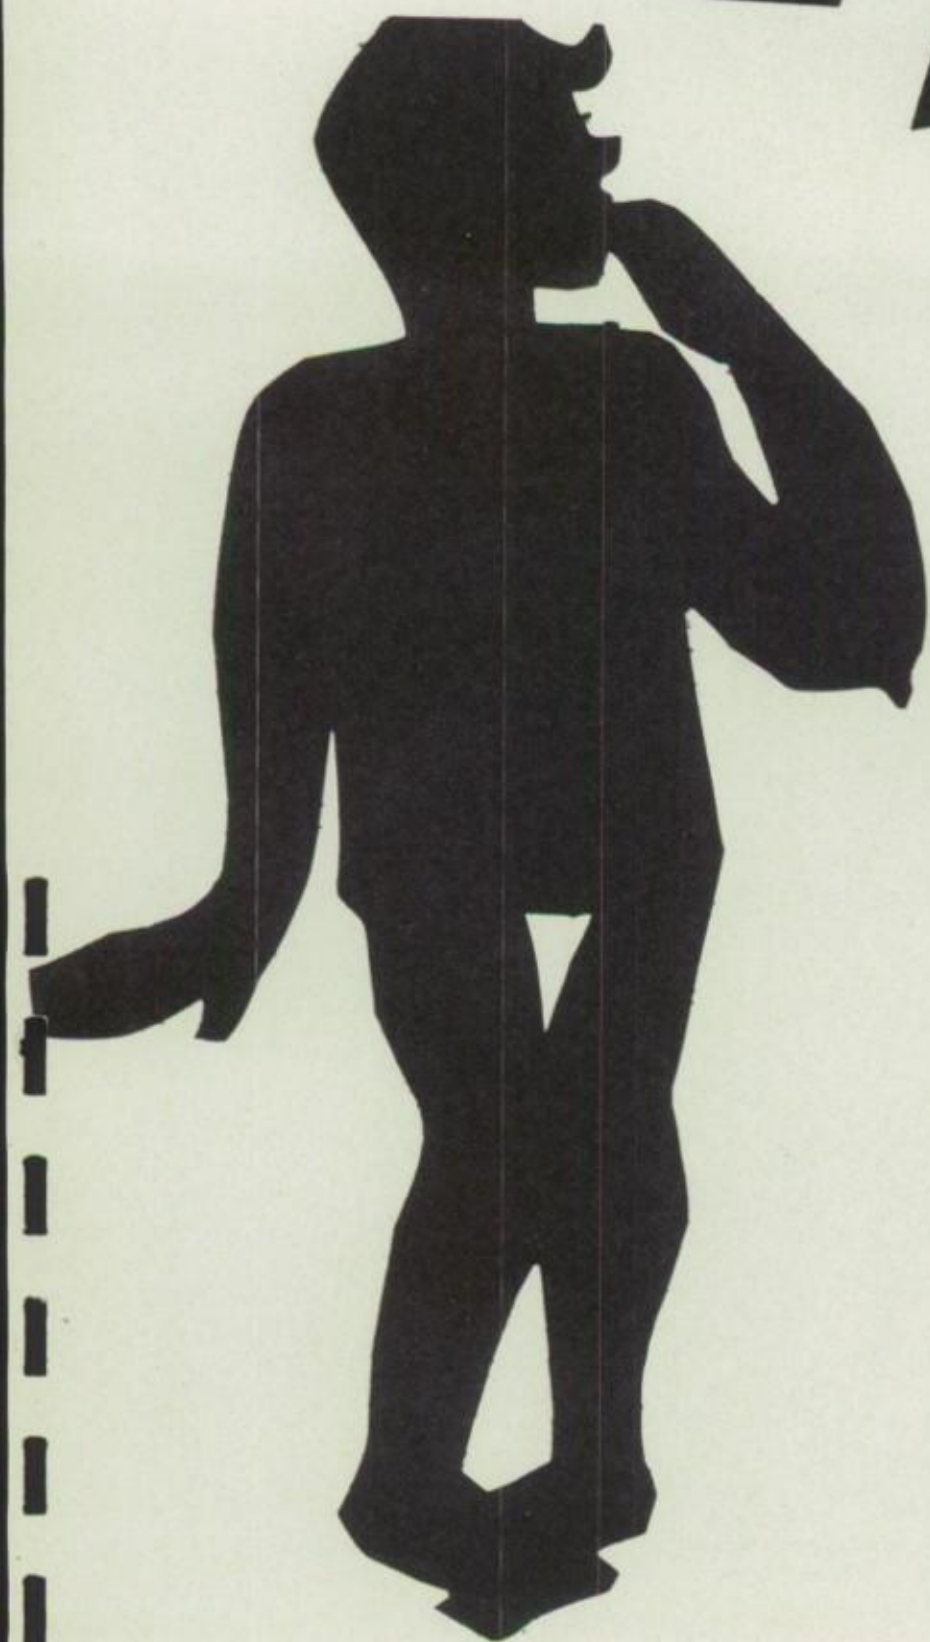

"Juanita McCorkle is one of the foremost artists of the world, she is painting Mary Kay in a court scene."

"There is an alumni party in progress. Here you will find many of your old classmates. The man who has brought old fashioned melodrama back to the public, Paul Ramstetter, is entertaining them with some of his best speeches. Watching him with amusement is Pearl Tripp, who has become Debutante No. 1 of the United States. Delores Simpson, the joke writer for Jack Benny, is telling some of her best gags. Swinging a tennis racket in that far corner is Ruth Ann Lisco, who has just defeated Alice Marble. The girl in slacks is Ruth Mason, who has made a successful business designing men's clothes for women. Her best model is Wanda Prichard. Erma Clayton is carefully telling Mildred Heath how to feed cats. Mildred runs a home for stray cats. Erma has become the world's foremost authority in the care of animals, through her ownership of a cat and dog hospital. The method for growing the world's largest peach is best explained by Marjory Nickles and Frances Steffonich, authorities on farm products. Betty Strouse, whose occupation is posing for shampoo ads, is attending the party. Her raven black locks have become as famous as Hedy Lamarr's own flowing tresses."

"Do you like our Bazaar? Come again next year."

The Golden High Demons opened their 1940 grid season on September 13, by trouncing Holy Family in a practice game, 9 to 0. Coach Brennecke's eleven displayed a lot of power with Burroughs, Taylor, Hyllegard, and Signer lugging the ball and Le Favre, Matthews, Boggs, Smith, Covert, Miner, Crow, and Deering clearing the way. Capt. Bob Taylor plunged over for the only touchdown to climax a series of running plays. Signer snagged Taylor's pass for the extra. A safety gave the Demons the final two points.

Although the Demons completely outplayed the Arvada Redskins in their initial league start, they failed to capitalize on several scoring opportunities and were held to a 6-6 deadlock. Arvada scored first but Golden tied it up in a nice run by Taylor. However Golden missed an attempted conversion and although they threatened several times afterwards, they failed to push across another score.

In another practice game the Demons literally massacred the listless Garden Home eleven of the Mountain Valley league, 41-6. From the outset, Golden commenced to pile up a huge score. Taylor, Burroughs, Signer, Covert, Miner, Leeper and Dilling all contributed to the scoring. Garden Home found Golden's rock-ribbed forward wall too tough to crack and only threatened near the end of the game on the Golden reserves.

Golden definitely established themselves as a major threat for the title by walloping Littleton 33-0. The Demons bottled up the Lion offense so effectively that the Lions couldn't penetrate further than the Golden 35-yard line. Meanwhile the Demons scored early and often on short smashes by Burroughs and Taylor. Francis got off a long kick of 77 yards to high-light the game. The win placed Golden in a tie for second place with Arvada. Wheatridge held first place in the league with two wins against no losses.

Golden met stubborn opposition by Aurora's light but scrappy team, but midway in the second stanza, the Demons' powerhouse started to roll. Garv Burroughs smacked over for the first touchdown. Francis Leeper shook loose and rambed 40 yards for another touchdown, Riley Covert split the up-rights, and Golden commanded a 13-0 lead at half time. Diminutive Charley Goudge scampered 50 yards for another score and Jerry Dilling skirted around end for the fourth and final touchdown. Aurora scored late in the game, but the final count showed the Demons out in front by a comfortable 26-7 score.

The Demons gained undisputed first place by nosing out the defending champs from Wheatridge, 8-7 in a thrill-packed game. Golden scored first on a sustained drive midway in the second quarter with Taylor and Burroughs leading the assault and Hyllegard clearing the way. An attempted pass fell incomplete. The Farmers scored just before half time and converted to lead 7-6. Wheatridge once drove to the Golden 3-yard line but were held on downs and Taylor kicked out of danger. The break that decided the issue came with only three minutes to play when Gordon Miner blocked a Wheatridge kick which bounded out of the end zone for a safety.

The Demons socked Arvada 19-0 and made surer their hold on first place. With Taylor and Burroughs carrying the mail, the Demons drove 60-yards for the initial touchdown without relinquishing the ball. Bob Taylor sparked a concentrated march to the Arvada 5-yard line where Mert Signer cut over for the second score. In the final period, Taylor skirted around end, reversed his field, and was finally brought down after a 45-yard gain. Signer reeled off from the 5-yard line. Taylor shot a pass to Signer for the final point. One of the features of the game was Taylor's booming kick from his own 25-yard line which bounded out of bounds on the Arvada 8-yard line. The Golden line which had held their opponents to 20 points in six games, broke through repeatedly to throw Arvada back for losses.

Golden's powerful grid machine virtually clinched the Central Suburban League championship by running rough-shod over Aurora, 20-0, while Wheatridge was bowing to Arvada, 18-6. Despite muddy underfooting, the Demons demonstrated plenty of precision in their running attack and accurate aerials to demoralize the hapless Trojans. Fritz Brennecke's eleven scored shortly after the opening kickoff on a nice run by Bob Taylor who also skirted his end for the extra. Taylor tossed a perfect strike to Larry Deering for the second touchdown and Jerry Dilling intercepted an Aurora pass and shook loose for another touchdown. Francis Leeper found Chuck Gibson open in the end zone for the point after. Wayne Hyllegard continually set up long runs by his timely blocking. Coupled with Wheatridge's loss, Golden needed only one win out of its two remaining games to capture the championship.

The championship of the league rested securely in the hands of the Golden Demons after a 13-12 win over Wheatridge. Despite a muddy field, the Demons took the opening kickoff and drove for a touchdown—the final 20 yards coming on a pass from Taylor to Signer. Garv Burroughs plunged over for Golden's last score to climax a 40-yard run by Taylor. Signer caught Taylor's pass for the all-important point. In a hectic second half, Wheatridge scored twice but failed to capitalize on either of the extras. Golden was forced to put on a real goal line stand in the waning minutes to check the Farmers.

The Demons smothered Littleton, 37-12, to complete their highly successful campaign. Wayne Hyllegard ran 40 yards on a fake spinner for the initial score. Garv Burroughs and Bob Taylor each accounted for two touchdowns apiece, and Signer took a lateral from Ben Le Favre for the final touchdown. Gordon Miner converted for the only extra point.

Golden wound up the '40 football season with 9 victories, 1 tie, and no losses. The Demons placed four men on the all-conference team: Riley Covert, guard; Lawrence Deering, End; Gordon Miner, Center; and Bob Taylor, tailback. Bob Taylor and Gordon Miner also received honorable mention on the all-state team. This honor secured for them the opportunity to play on the all-state senior team that will play this summer in Denver.

The Golden Demons opened the '40 and '41 basketball season with a decisive win over Brighton, 33-19. The Golden cagers raked up a 22-8 margin at the intermission and coasted in. Bob Taylor paced the Golden offense with an 8-point output and Mert Signer followed with 7 points. Gordon Miner scored 5 points as well as following well under both baskets.

The Demon five clipped Holy Family, 35-30, to cop their second win in as many starts. Sparked by Johnny "Red" Anderson and Al Corfman, who caged 8 points apiece, the Demons held an 18-15 edge at half time and commanded the lead throughout the remainder of the contest.

Paced by Johnny Anderson, hustling little forward, who took high point honors with 4 field goals as well as sparking his team with an aggressive floor game, the Demons won from the Regis Preps, 26-20. Al Corfman, Demon forward, followed well under his basket and cashed in with three baskets from the floor. The Demons led throughout although Regis occasionally put on futile rallies. Francis Leeper sunk a long one-hand push shot from midfloor for the best shot of the evening.

In a fast basketball game, the Golden High School team trimmed the Odd Fellows, a team of former high school stars, 25-21. The win was the fourth straight for the Demons. The high school team led almost the whole game but were forced to rally after the Odd Fellows had knotted the score at 19-19. Diminutive little Chuck Goudge and Center Gordon Miner shared scoring honors with 6 points apiece.

The Demon cagers took their first league game at the expense of the Aurora Trojans, 23-19. The Golden first string all found the range to give the Demons a 14-9 lead at the intermission. The Demons caught fire in the third period to build up a 20-12 margin, but were forced to stall when the revamped Trojans rallied to narrow the margin. Chuck Goudge hit a money basket and gratis toss in the waning minutes to settle the issue. Al Corfman was high for Golden with 5 points and Riley Covert came through with a pair of nice set shots.

The Demons continued their winning ways on the Arvada floor, skinning the Redskins 24-14. Johnny Anderson hit 4 consecutive field goals in the third period to enable the Demons to cop an easy victory. Mert Signer swished 2 long set shots and a free throw to give the Demons a lead which they never relinquished. The win gave the Golden quintet undisputed possession of first place in the Suburban loop.

Golden's undefeated aggregation showed plenty of class in trampling the Farmers from Wheatridge on the Golden floor, 24-15. Both teams clamped on vice-like defenses and Golden led by the narrow margin of 12-7 at half time. A last half scoring spree, however, was too much for the hapless Farmers. Johnny Anderson drilled in 7 points to lead the point makers and Al Corfman and Gordon Miner each caged 6 markers.

The Demon cagers met stubborn opposition from an underdog Littleton five, but managed to come out on the long end of a 23-19 score after a hectic battle. The Demons found a lid on the basket throughout most of the game, but finally broke the ice in the waning minutes to pull ahead. Johnny Anderson and Al Corfman, Demon forwards, were the leading point makers with 10 and 8 points respectively. Gordon Miner turned in his usual good floor game, clearing the backboards and holding Chenault, rival center, to a few points. Bob Taylor and Mert Signer, Golden guards, played steady ball in the backcourt.

The Demons suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Aurora Trojans on the Trojan floor, 16-14. Golden trailed 9-7 at half time and were never quite able to pull the game out of the fire. A zone defense forced the Demons to score most of their baskets from well out on the floor. Johnny Anderson was the only Demon to score consistently, splitting the strings for 9 points. The loss, although a bitter one, had no material effect on the standings, Golden still commanding a lead over Aurora in the title race.

The Arvada Redskins toppled Golden's championship hopes into a turmoil by winning a hard fought defensive game from the Demons, 17-16. Golden erased Arvada's 13-6 half time lead only to lose out in the final minutes. Gordon Miner led the Golden five with 6 points as well as turning in an aggressive floor game.

Golden suffered their third straight defeat, this one at the hands of Wheatridge. Playing on the spacious Farmer floor, the Demons played good ball, but finally bowed to the Farmers' superior shooting. With both fives hitting consistently from well out on the floor, the game was close throughout with neither team leading by more than 3 points. Johnny Anderson cashed in on 6 free throws and a field goal and Gordon Miner and Al Corfman and Mert Signer found the range with 6, 5, and 4 points respectively.

The Demons journeyed to Steamboat Springs only to lose to the Sailors, 28-26. The Golden quintet were seemingly unable to hit any kind of a shot until late in the third period when trailing 20-11 they put on a fast rally which fell short by only two points. Red Anderson marked up 10 points for the visitors. Although the loss marred the trip, a good time was had by all. Anderson, Corfman, Miner, Taylor, Signer, Covert, Goudge, Leeper, and Pike all made the trip.

The revitalized Golden Demons hit the comeback trail with a smashing 41-16 win over the Littleton Lions on the Golden court. The win lifted the Demons into a second place tie. Johnny Anderson carried most of the Golden scoring, ringing the hoop for 20 points. With Miner, Covert, Goudge, Taylor, and Signer all hitting from all angles the Demons jumped into an early lead and were never headed. However, Wheatridge clinched the title by an easy win over Aurora.

In a playoff game to determine the Suburban's second place representative in the district playoffs, the Golden five swarmed all over Arvada to win a 40-33 decision. Anderson, caging 11 points, Signer, marking up 9 points, and Corfman and Miner, 7 apiece, the Demons bombarded the basket with accuracy to make up for the previous loss to the Redskins.

Playing in the Westminster gym the Demons lost a comparatively easy game to the polished Edgewater crew, 44-22. The Mustangs, running screen plays with precision, and clamping on a tight defense on the Demons gave the Suburban representatives a set back. The Demons trailed 17-11 at the intermission but were completely outclassed in the second half. Al Corfman and Bob Taylor meshed 6 and 5 points respectively for the losers.

Golden finished their basketball season by bowing to Wheatridge, 24-14. The loss eliminated the Demons for further participation. The Golden high schoolers were far from their best form and the Farmers turned in a better brand of ball to win. Mert Signer kept the Golden team in the ball game with three long shots.

Golden won 5 and lost 3 games in the regular league competition and won a playoff game with Arvada. The Demons won 4 out of 5 practice games but lost 2 consecutive games in the district meet. Total games showed the Demons winners of 10 out of 16 games.

Johnny "Red" Anderson was voted unanimously to a place on the all-conference team. His consistently good shooting and aggressive floor games were the best in the league. Gordon Miner also landed a spot on the all-star five. He was invaluable for his rebound work and defensive work.

*D. Churches, J. Mason, D. Hartz, A. Liss, D. Pulver
J. Goudge, G. Adams, E. Thomas, B. Foster, D. Kroeger*

Golden's future first stringers, namely the "B" squad, had some tough luck during the season, losing almost entirely all their games by close margins. However the final game of the season against the Arvada Redskin reserves showed what real ability the "B" team had as they played good basketball to win easily. The team, composed almost entirely of freshmen and sophomores, lacked experience but showed signs of development. They should be an important factor in bolstering Golden's cage hopes next year. The spark of the team was diminutive Jackie Goudge, flyweight forward, who was the best scorer on the team. He always directed the team well and turned in aggressive floor games. Lanky Art Liss, freshman, played opposite Goudge and always turned in a good reliable ball game. With more experience, he should make a standout player. Johnny Mason was the workman of the team, clearing off rebounds in good style and generally playing well on defense. Delmer Kroeger, guard, although small had plenty of speed and hustle and was an important cog in setting up plays. Playing at the other guard position was husky Don Churches who helped Mason on rebound work and played good steady ball. Glenn "Red" Adams was one of the best shots on the team, and when he and Goudge were both hitting, Golden really had an offense to be contended with. Glenn played with the Golden "A" team in its post-season games with Wheatridge and Edgewater and played well. Everett Thomas was a smooth ball handler and was valuable as a play-maker. He should work in well next season. Dick Hartz, angular center, was considerably handicapped by lack of experience this season but has plenty of height which he should use to good advantage. Sorrel-topped Billy Foster, freshman, showed plenty of class and Dean Pulver, also a freshman, can be relied on for service next year.

With a little luck the "B" team could have converted a mediocre season into a good one.

Coach E. Grant

Under the able coaching of Earl Grant, the Golden Wrestling team had another of their usual successful seasons. The Demon "grapplers" won matches from Littleton, Wheatridge, Englewood, and South Denver—the only setback coming at the hands of East Denver. Jim Matthews, stocky 155-pounder, went through undefeated to win the state championship in his division. Jack Boggs lost out in the semi-finals but came back to win the match for third place honors. Bud Volz lost a narrow decision to North's champion Weber, but also won third place. These boys were instrumental in raking up the sixteen points that gave Golden a fifth place rating in the state tournament held at the West Denver Gymnasium. This is really an accomplishment for a school of Golden's size competing with class "A" schools. Grant's charges virtually made a clean sweep of the conference meet held in the Golden Gym. Golden, Littleton, and Wheatridge all had entries in every weight. Buddy Volz, Harold West, Chuck Gibson, Jack Boggs, Bob Crow, Larry Deering, and Wayne Hyllegard all copped first place medals, and Oliver McMahan and Fred Fell won runners up honors. Other letter men beside the above mentioned were Clyde Deering and heavyweight Garvin Burroughs. McMahan, Larry Deering, and Hyllegard are all seniors and will be missed next year. However Matthews, Boggs, Volz, C. Deering, Fell, Crow, and Burroughs will be back to form the nucleus of the team in their bid for another conference championship next year.

Much credit for the team's achievement is due to Coach Grant's knowledge of the sport and his tutoring of the high school squad has been of invaluable aid.

Golden High School's tracksters, boasting one of the best turnouts in several years, have high hopes for the '41 season. As usual a pre-season inter-class track and field meet was held in the Mines Field house. The Juniors seemingly monopolized most of the events and won handily.

The Golden squad has already won easily over Littleton by a big margin and also raked up an easy win over the Wheatridge Farmers. Aurora's strength is unknown but Arvada's defending champs seem, as usual, to be the big obstacle in Golden's bid for the conference title.

Mert Signer is the school's best sprinter and runs the low hurdles and broad jumps equally well. Oliver McMahan is the outstanding 440-yard runner. He also runs anchor man on the improved mile relay team, and high and broad jumps well. Dick Unland is a good sprinter and shows plenty of form in the high hurdles. Lanky Bob Shaller is Golden's representative in the half mile, and also participates in the mile relay. Sophomore Ev Thomas is counted on to pick up points in the mile. Johnny Mason specializes in the high jump. Francis Leeper is a good pole vaulter and is sure to win places in the broad jump and 220-yard dash. Big Wayne Hyllegard has thrown the shot close to 43 feet and should be a potent point-getter in the discus. He runs the 220-yard dash and in the 880-yard relay team also. Don Churches' best event is the pole vault.

These boys give the Golden team a formidable outfit which will be hard to beat.

The Golden Tennis Team this year seems to be of somewhat uncertain capabilities. The team will be under the direction of Miss Chandler, gym instructor, who succeeded Mr. Pinks. The annual tennis tournament, open to all boys and girls interested in the sport, was held as usual. The tournament is used as a means of determining the five boys and an equal number of girls who will comprise the team.

Ruth Ann Lisco, who went through the Golden city meet undefeated to win the undisputed girls' championship is expected to be the standout girl tennis player in the school. She has plenty of ability and should bolster the team's chances. Chuck Goudge is the only letter man returning this year. He has experience and should be the boys' best representative.

Al Corfman, Jack Goudge, Roy Gurule, and Bennie Le Favre are counted on to win matches for the boys while Mary Kay Thomas, Mary Jane Heath, and Peggy Anne Clark give the girls a good representation.

Matches with Longmont, Littleton, and one at Boulder as well as a few others have been scheduled.

C O U N C I L

Out of the chaos and conflict of the present world situation the United States stands as the lighthouse in a port of storm, sending out its rays of light to all the storm-tossed ships at sea, guiding them ever onward to their respective Ports of Democracy.

In order that the individuals of our school might better understand the delicate mechanisms of this great stronghold, they are endowed with the self-governing body, the STUDENT COUNCIL.

As is the law of the school constitution, President Bob Taylor and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Kay Thomas were nominated by petition and then elected by a majority vote of the student body. From the list submitted by the nominating committee, affable Ethel Jane Harvey and "up and at 'em" Benny Le Favre were chosen to legislate for the Senior Class. They in turn were backed up by the Juniors, ingenious Betty Barb and caper-cutting Chuck Goudge. Clara Hicks represented the Sophomores and Shirley Barb served on behalf of the Freshmen.

Feeling somewhat intellectual, they started out the year with a newspaper party. With its printed streamers and timely extras, it was a much publicized affair. The Christmas party with its translucent red bells and silver streamers, sought to please the fancy of those desiring both beauty and fun. An ever-generous Santa Claus remembered all those present. The year was brought to a climax at "The Little Red Schoolhouse," where the "teacher" and her "ABC's" held the spotlight for the evening. Tag and circle dances helped to make things lively.

The first task confronting Student Council each year is that of outlining a well-rounded assembly program. They had five pay assemblies. Among these were the Hawaiian musicians, a chemist, an explorer, and a marionette show. There was an Armistice Day Program, an American Legion Assembly, coupled up with several vocational speakers. The dramatic classes each put on interesting plays, and the council sponsored various novelty programs—a talent assembly, a quiz program, and numerous pep assemblies including a pep skit portraying daily the troubles of Danny Demon.

To become a member of the Student Association, one must buy an association ticket. This ticket extends to him the right to attend football and basketball games, the all-school parties, pay assemblies, and after-school dances. Having an association ticket also entitles one to vote for the President and Secretary-Treasurer of Student Council for the succeeding year. The latest addition to the voting system was the use of the Australian ballot and voting booths.

Some of the innovations of this year's Council are the Record Library, which is still in the embryonic stages, and Council Corner, which is a column in Maroon and White for the purpose of keeping the students informed as to the progress made in Council meetings. Also by way of improving cooperation between Council and the student body, the Council appointed a Bulletin Board Committee every two weeks, whose duty it was to present an interesting and worth-while bulletin board to the student body.

In February, the Council members, accompanied by Miss Bolitho, represented Golden at the Student Council Convention at Fort Collins, Colorado. There they attended the general assembly and discussion groups, all convening for the purpose of improving student government.

Probably the task most noted by the student body members was the supervision of noon dancing. Every noon one of the council members saw to it that there was music and plenty of it for all those with rhythm in their souls. To relieve the monotony of just plain dancing, they added a few "circle dances," "Boys' and Girls' Tags" and "Ladies' Days."

Every year a G-pin is awarded to each student who has accumulated a sufficient number of points through participation in student activities and scholastic achievements. Ethel Jane Harvey was the G-pin representative this year. Under her supervision, the points of each student were tabulated. This year the G-pins were presented at the end of the first semester in order that the eligible Seniors might wear theirs for a half year.

Charles Zimmer and Buddy Ternstrom, the flag-bearers this year, were very capably assisted by the Bugler Junior Harvey. The Council deeply appreciates the faithful service and the furthering of patriotism of these three boys.

The success of this year's Council can be attributed to the cooperation of the student body and the never-failing enthusiasm of Miss Bolitho.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In order to instigate a desire to render service, an eagerness for scholarship, and to encourage leadership and the development of character in the students of Golden High an honor society was established.

The Golden High School Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools was organized in 1927. This organization has always been held in high esteem by those fortunate and capable enough to become a member. Membership, based on scholarship, leadership, character and service, is both active and graduate. Students are elected by votes of the faculty members. Any member of the faculty may recommend names of pupils eligible for the society. In order to be eligible for membership in this chapter, a candidate must have a scholarship rank in the first fourth of his respective graduating class.

There may be only five per cent of the Junior class elected during the last month of the sixth semester. The remainder may be chosen during the eighth or last semester before graduation. Not more than fifteen per cent of a senior, or graduating class may be elected to this chapter in any one year.

We wish to manifest our pride in these outstanding students, who have this year, fulfilled all the requirements necessary for membership in this society.

MAROON AND WHITE

A. Bacon, F. Calkins, J. Crain, L. Harris, H. Maughan, J. Richards, B. Shaller

Maroon and White is a voluntary activity, elected by those students who wish to communicate to their school what its student body does, feels, and thinks.

They not only let us know what is going on in athletics, and all the other extra curricular of our school activities but they also give us educational and self-improvement articles to help each student become a better "Demon."

They originated some clever ideas among which are: Senior Shorts, a personality study of each Senior to introduce him to his fellow students; Council Corner to let the student body know what their representatives are doing to improve their school and to protect their rights of citizenship. Many students know very little about their teachers and so do not understand and appreciate them. Teachers' interviews were started to introduce the teachers to their students.

Maroon and White is an informative and worth-while activity, not to just a few, but to each student who is interested in the welfare of his school and the betterment of his community life.

The "G" Club is composed of boys who have participated and received their letters in some major school sport.

It was originated in 1938 under the auspices of Coach Brennecke. It has always been considered a privilege to be numbered among its members. Each year it has increased in membership and importance until today it is one of the top honorary clubs in Golden High.

The officers are: Gordon Miner, President; Merton Signer, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Brennecke is their faculty representative.

In the spring of each year the club sponsors a banquet in honor of its new members and its alumni.

This year compulsory Physical Education for Freshmen and Sophomore girls was added to the sports division of Golden High under the direction of Miss Chandler.

Included in the gym course is Hygiene which takes up first aid and a study of the body. Each member who passed the Hygiene course received a certificate which indicated that she had satisfactorily completed a prescribed course in Red Cross First Aid.

This organization sent delegates to Boulder who participated in many different sports. Those delegated attended many sessions the purpose of which was to improve the methods and system of points for numerals now used in Golden High School.

During the year girls in gymnasium classes were divided into four groups. Each class selected a baseball, basketball, and volleyball team and then competed with each other, with the fourth class the victors. The students had their choice of many sports including baseball, basketball, tennis, volleyball, ping-pong, bowling, tumbling, and many others.

In the spring the classes gave an exhibition in which the girls successfully proved skill in tumbling, building pyramids and in folk dancing.

Their officers were: Margaret Dupppman, President; Atha Deffenbaugh, Vice-President; Betty Barb, Secretary; and Velma Jean Pfalzgraf, Treasurer. Their sponsor is Miss Chandler.

Physical Education is a beneficial activity for, it not only builds the body but teaches and encourages sportsmanship, improves personality by contact with friends and improves the mental alertness of each and everyone.

The season started with pep and enthusiasm, for each "Peppie" was proud of her new uniform: Maroon jumpers, white satin blouses and white beanies, and for the first time in the history of Pep Club, anklets.

Each member worked industriously for precision in the marching maneuvers. Four drills were given, each under the direction of a drillmaster, who not only improvised her drill but directed it. Mary Ellen Vorce used a patriotic theme, Mary K. Thomas used figures and dance routines. Flowers and angles were featured in the drill directed by Peggy Ann Clark and in the last drill of the season under the direction of Mildred Heath circles were prominent.

The cheering was led by Mary Kay Thomas, Mary Anne Signer, Betty Jane Matthews and Annabelle Maughan.

Pep club is governed by a council made up of elected officers with the drillmasters and representatives chosen by the Sponsor. The council is an important part of our Pep Club. It makes the laws by which the club is governed, appoints committees and approves and sponsors methods and means of raising money.

The officers were: Ethel Jane Harvey, President; Dorothy Gorman, Vice-President; and Peggy Anne Clark, Secretary-Treasurer. Each officer executed well her respective duties to further the interests of Pep Club. The Faculty member of the Pep Club is Miss Priest.

The theme of the annual Mother-Daughter banquet given in the spring was "On Wings of Song." The club used a red, gold and black color combination with notes and scales for their decorative scheme. At this banquet the new officers for '41 and '42 were installed.

Golden High is very fortunate indeed to have such an excellent music department. Besides the band and glee clubs a new organization was formed, A Capella choir. This activity which is under the direction of Mr. Johnson gives each student excellent voice culture and an opportunity for choral training.

With baton raised Mr. Bishop started our band on its musical career. The band added a great deal to the enjoyment of many of our assemblies and games by their inspirational and patriotic selections. With versatility they played from overtures to comics, most amusing of which was "Pop Goes the Weasel," featuring every section of the band ensemble.

Their engagements were: "The Annual Boulder Band Day," P. T. A. Play, Senior Play, Senior Class Night, Music Week and also the basketball and football games.

Their officers were Bennie Le Favre, President; Eddie Pike, Vice-President; and Ethel Jane Harvey, Secretary-Treasurer.

There were two drum majorettes this year: Jeanne Tanner and Myrna Dillon. Grace Aitkenhead, our drum major, made a stately appearance at every performance.

Mr. Ralph Bishop worked very hard to bring this organization to the fortissimo of musical perfection. He strived patiently for the crescendo that brought them to the heights they proudly attained this year.

Some students spent many pleasurable hours singing in the glee clubs. Although this activity is being replaced by the A Capella choir it is still one of the favorite activities of a larger portion of the students. They specialized this year as in the past, in three and four part harmony. Each year the glee clubs have had several singing engagements and in each instance they have proved that this organization is a cooperative and outstanding group in its school and community life.

As music is such an essential and wonderful part of our education, so it is with pride and gratification that we look back at these, our musical activities, with deep and lasting appreciation.

The future Home-Makers Club is formed with the purpose of learning to keep a modern house. There were three classes, each of which have officers who form a council to govern their club. They hold regular monthly meetings.

Roberta Dorr was chosen to lead them for the past year as president of their council. Her assistants were: Velma Pfalzgraf, Vice-President; Helen Ruth Gann, Secretary; and Billie Pomeroy, Treasurer.

This year each member strived very hard to receive her degree. There are two possible: Junior Home-Maker and Future Home-Maker.

These have been very active and ambitious groups. Their first undertaking was noon-lunches, which were extremely successful. They sponsored a Future Home-Makers Week and helped with Courtesy Week. With money from their financial undertakings they built shelves in the kitchen and bought a much-needed electric clock.

They were busy and efficient Home-Makers which have made their club a success for the past year.

The Dramatic Clubs have given some very worth-while plays this year.

Miss Priest's Dramatic Class presented: "The Whole Truth," the story of an heiress and an English Lord, in which everyone pretends to be someone else until midsummer eve, when they each give their true identity; "The Little Darling," wherein Viola takes everything away from her younger sister, Eleanor, until the "Kid" sister rebels and saves Eleanor's football hero from the clutches of Viola; "The Cousin from Sweden," features two society girls who are dreading a visit from their Swedish cousin when she inopportunately arrives, turns the tables and the society girls apologize for their misgivings.

Miss Fairbanks' Dramatic Classes presented: "The Clod," a tragic story of the Civil War, in which the Clod and her husband are bothered by Northern soldiers thus giving a Southern spy his chance to escape. "The Man in the Bowler Hat," an old-fashioned melodrama. The Hero loses the ticket to the box in which a famous ruby is stored, and it is only after an irate father catches up with his daughter and disposes of the villian that the mystery of the ruby is solved.

Miss Chandler is Sponsor of a Puppet Class. She has five girls who make their Puppets, paint the scenery and design their stage. They presented "Cinderella," for which her students wrote the play and took the voice parts.

Dramatics is indeed a worth-while activity. It develops phonetically acceptable speech and the personalities of our students; it helps good posture and aids students who have talent and are interested in the stage to indulge in an external manifestation of these interests.

Every Senior has warm and cherished memories of his years in Golden High. And so each year it is with anticipation that each student looks forward to the publication of the School Diary alias "The Senior Annual."

We, who have had the great pleasure of making this, your memory book, are proud and happy to present "The Golden Demon," the product of weeks of diligent work and concerted effort. We only hope that you will cherish it as much as we have enjoyed working on it, and that as you turn each page you will be reminded of the glorious memories of four years well spent in the Demon's Haven.

Mr. Grant, Mr. Rex and Miss Fairbanks, our worthy sponsors, worked like true Demons to make this the best publication possible, so it is only proper that they should receive first mention for their patient and untiring work.

In order to present this illustrative book, only the versatile Mary Kay Thomas, as our worthy Editor could have made it the success that it is. Her assistant Editor, Peggy Anne Clark, by cooperation and keen interest did her best.

The Sports division has been adequately and excitedly handled by our keenly alive and sports-minded commentator, Al Corfman.

Mildred Heath, Mary Ellen Vorce, and Gerald Gould, as staff assistants have given inspiration and hard work to our publication.

"Efficiency" is the word that best describes our Business Manager, Ethel Jane Harvey. By the wise handling of our funds she did a great deal for this "Bigger and Better Annual."

The Man-about-Town and high pressure salesman, Johnnie Anderson was in charge of local advertising. It is to him we owe a great deal of our revenue. Our out-of-town advertising was very successful due to the diligent work of Wayne Hyllegard.

To these well-known Demons we owe our annual sales, Benny Le Favre, Gordon Miner, and Bob Taylor skyrocketed our sales to a previously unheard of total. Good work boys!

Bill Harris, known as Rembrandt, our Art Director, showed great artistic ability by his clever and brilliant sketches which made our annual a work of wonder. Merna Dillon an artist in her own right gave her all in the interest of our Demon Palette.

"Get your pictures taken before Friday," was the very familiar cry about school. The one responsible for that announcement was Elon Thompson, our photographer. He was everywhere—behind the stage for plays, at the 40-yard line for football, and at the basket for basketball. All this took time which he gave willingly. Thanks a lot Elon, we owe you a great deal.
